

Prison Phoenix Trust Deputy Director Jason Doble receives the Una Padel Award 'Highly Commended' certificate from Una Padel's daughter Morag at the Centre for Crime and Justice Studies annual event at Kings College London - awarded for the PPT's outstanding work in encouraging the disciplines of meditation and yoga in prisons. First prize in the organisation category went to Prison Chat UK (PCUK), a national charity run by volunteers providing an online networking website including discussion forums and chat areas for prisoners' families and friends.